

RUNNING THE RACE FOR THE PRIZE (Discipleship and Reward)

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE SEEN AS A RACE	DISCIPLESHIP HELPS FOR THE RACE	THE PRIZE
The Christian life begins with the new birth. At that point we are fully justified before God (Rom. 4:1-5; 5:1). After that, we start to live the Christian life, which is sometimes pictured as a race which we run. This race, our daily living, is where discipleship happens. Discipleship involves the process of life-long sanctification. Being a disciple means being a learner, a follower, of Jesus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Run the race set before us. Heb. 12:1-2</li> <li>● Run in a way that you may win an incorruptible crown. 1 Cor. 9:24-27</li> <li>● Press on towards the goal for the prize. Phil. 3:13-14</li> <li>● Finish the race course well and gain the crown of righteousness. 2 Tim. 4:7-8</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Running with endurance, looking to Jesus; Heb. 12:1-2. Endurance involves doing the will of God, even under difficult circumstances. Heb. 10:36</li> <li>● Willingness to deny ourselves in order to follow Christ in obedience. Lk. 14:26-33</li> <li>● Abiding in God's Word: listening to it, treasuring it and obeying it. Jn. 8:31-32; Lk. 6:46-49; 8:15; 10:38-42</li> <li>● Praying. Eternal salvation is a free gift, apart from works, whereas reward (recompense) is "according to works" (Matt. 16:27; Rev. 22:12). Rewards for the believer are decided at the Judgment Seat of Christ and the recompense can be positive or negative (2 Cor. 5:10; Eph. 6:5-8; Col. 3:23-25). The great positive reward (the prize) is ruling with Christ in His 1,000 year reign, and enjoying a special portion of eternal life in that age. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Ruling with Christ in His future reign is dependent upon our endurance in following Christ in this life – Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:12</li> <li>● Crowns, signifying rulership with Christ, are available for the faithful believer. 1 Cor. 9:24-27; 1 Thess. 2:19; 2 Tim. 4:8; Jas. 1:12; 1 Pet. 5:2-4</li> <li>● "Eternal life" in the age to come is a magnified enjoyment of fellowship with Christ in the 1,000 year kingdom, and is awarded for following Christ – Mk. 10:28-30</li> </ul>
